Teriyaki Experience Chain Growth Continues Globally

OAKVILLE, Ontario, June, 2009...Franchisor Teriyaki Experience continues to move forward with their global expansion plans and is slated to open an additional 12 units by the end of the year, says Nick Veloce, Teriyaki Experience President & COO.

New Canadian locations include food court units in the prestigious new enclosed shopping centre development, CrossIron Mills in Calgary, AB, Mapleview Mall in Burlington, ON, Queen's University in Kingston, ON and Humber College in Toronto, ON. Street front units will also open in Richmond Hill and Brampton, ON. Two new locations will open the U.S., both in Florida, bringing the total units in that State to 3.

New international openings in the last quarter of 2009 include second locations in South Africa and Honduras, a third location in Romania and the sixth location in Costa Rica.

"We're delighted that our position as the healthy alternative to traditional fast food continues to resonate with people across the globe and we're excited about the future prospects in the markets where we currently operate and the new markets we're entering", Veloce stated.
